

Call for Posters

online conference on 22 November 2024

ABOUT THE ESRC

The European Students Research Conference for Risk, Safety and Security 2024 will take place exclusively as an online conference, following the concept of promoting student exchange within Europe.

The Cooperation Network for Risk, Safety & Security Studies [CONRIS] invites students or graduates who are working on or have completed a bachelor's or master's thesis in the field of risk, safety or security to present their research to other students, researchers and professionals around the world.

Take the opportunity to show what your findings can do for science and practice, make valuable contacts and meet people interested in risk, safety, security and research.

You can submit scientific posters to the ESRC 2024. Posters will be judged on design, originality, methodological quality and results. Six posters (three on risk, three on safety /security) will be shortlisted by the jury.
